

Send an Election Email to Employees & Friends It's Easy! Here's How.

The email you'll send will look like this:

From: Susan Smith, CEO [mailto:ssmith@abccompany.com]

Sent: Wednesday, July 21, 2010 3:38 PM

To: johnjones@abccompany.com

Subject: Be Informed Before You Vote

The image shows a preview of an email. On the left, there is a yellow banner with the text "A Strong State Needs a Strong Foundation! Vote Tuesday! For Oklahoma jobs and opportunity." Below this is a light blue section with the text "Be informed before you vote!" and "Go to: www.okprosperity.com to find your candidates." On the right side of the email preview is a photograph of a smiling baby wearing a yellow hard hat with "HARD HAT" written on it, and holding a wrench. The baby is wearing a red shirt and blue overalls. In the bottom left corner of the email preview, there is a small logo for the Oklahoma Prosperity Project, which includes the text "OKLAHOMA PROSPERITY PROJECT About our elections, our economy, our jobs! A STATE CHAMBER ELECTION SERVICE".

Just follow these simple steps:

- Open a web browser by clicking this link.
- Click on "Page" on the toolbar.
- Click on "Send Page by Email".
- Insert recipient's email address in the "To:" box.
- Change the subject line to: "Be Informed Before You Vote".
- Click "Send".

You're done! Congratulations and THANKS for helping go to the polls informed.
